

Assumptions: Each prescriber can only work in one clinic.
Each prescriber must prescribe at least one medicine.
Every patient who goes to the hospital has at least one record and one prescription.
Patients' medicines are available at pharmacies.
One medicine can be bought at multiple pharmacies.

